C. Punt

18.00 - 18.45 Keynote lecture

W. Bodmer

18.45 - 19.30 Welcome reception

Monday April 16, 2012
08.30 - 18.00 Interactive computerized radiology workshop

08.30 - 10.15 SESSION I: Prevention & screening

New endoscopic methods for detection of premalignant lesions
Pitfalls in CRC screening
Population screening for colorectal cancer in Europe
Oral abstract presentation

R. Kiesslich
M. van Leerdam
M. Bretthauer

10.15 - 10.45 Coffee / Tea Break

10.45 - 12.30 SESSION II: Diagnosis and follow-up

Perspectives in imaging of angiogenesis
The surveillance of colorectal cancer patients after surgery - interim results of the Colofol trial
The clinical relevance of micro-metastasis in regional lymph nodes
Oral abstract presentation

D. Sahani
P. Wille-Jørgensen

12.30 - 13.30 Lunch and poster viewing

12.30 - 13.30 Lunch - Satellite Symposium 2

13.30 - 14.45 SESSION III: Translational research 1

Molecular profiling for individualized treatment
Anti-angiogenic therapy in CRC
Oral abstract presentation

R. Rosenberg
P. Carmeliet

14.45 - 15.15 Coffee / Tea Break

15.15 - 16.15 SESSION IV: Controversy

Is there a benefit for resection of the primary tumor in synchronous metastatic colon carcinoma?
"Wait and See" after chemoradiation in rectal cancer

Pro: M. Koopman
Contra: P. Paty
Pro: G. Beets
Contra: R. Glynne-Jones

16.15 - 18.00 SESSION V: Multidisciplinary management 1

What are the implications of the different histological subtypes of CRC?
Timing of (neo-)adjuvant chemotherapy in relation to surgery
How to treat rectal cancer in the IBD patient
Oral abstract presentation

I. Nagtegaal
R. Glynne-Jones
H. de Wilt

18.00 - 19.00 Poster viewing

19:30 - 22:30 Congress Dinner

Tuesday April 17, 2012

08.30 - 18.00 Interactive computerized radiology workshop

08.30 - 09.45 SESSION VI: Genetics

Familial CRC prevention by colonoscopy

MutYH and CRC risk

Oral abstract presentation

H. Vasen

S. Farrington

09.45 - 10.45 SESSION VII: Controversy

Molecular expression profiling should guide treatment decisions in CRC

Laparoscopic surgery is preferred over open surgery for rectal cancer

*Pro: R. Bernards
Contra: P. Quirke*

*Pro: J. Bonjer
Contra: W. Hohenberger*

10.45 - 11.15 Coffee / Tea Break

11.15 - 12.45 SESSION VIII: Evaluation of treatment

Pros and cons of using disease free survival as endpoint for early stage CRC

Stop-and-go strategy in the systemic treatment of metastatic CRC, can we select patients?

Differences in imaging, surgery, radiotherapy and systemic treatments in the EURECCA colorectal project

A. Grothey

M. Seymour

C. van de Broek

12.45 - 13.45 Lunch and poster viewing

12.45 - 13.45 Lunch- Satellite Symposium 3

13.45 - 15.15 SESSION IX: Translational research 2

MicroRNA as biomarkers and therapeutic targets in CRC

Prognostic significance of local immune reaction

Oral abstract presentation

R. Bernards

J. Galon

15.00 - 15.30 Coffee / Tea Break

15.30 - 16.30 SESSION X: Update on randomized CRC trials

CORE study

Color 1 and 2: Open vs. Laparoscopic surgery

Stockholm 3

EORTC 40983 trial: subset analysis perioperative trial liver metastasis

H. Rutte

J. Bonjer

L. Pahlman

B. Nordlinger

16.30 - 18.00 SESSION XI: Multidisciplinary management 2

Radioembolisation of liver metastasis

Stereotactic radiotherapy for liver metastasis

CRC in the elderly

M. van de Bosch

A. Mendez Romero

E. Bastiaannet

18:00 - 19:00 Closing and drinks

European Multidisciplinary Colorectal Cancer Congress 2012

Congress Venue:

Hilton Prague
Pobřežní 1
Prague, Czech Republic

April 15 - 17, 2012

Prague, Czech Republic

Who should attend

This educational program is intended for specialists and researchers in the field of colorectal cancer with an interest in: Medical Oncology, Surgical Oncology, Radiotherapy, Pathology, Gastroenterology, Imaging, Radiology, Basic Science, and Genetics.

The European Multidisciplinary Colorectal Cancer Congress (EMCCC) is the European conference that truly provides a platform for in-depth multidisciplinary interaction among the various research areas involved.

Meeting topics

The conference will have separate sections on Surgery, Medical Oncology, Radiotherapy, Pathology, Imaging, Gastroenterology, Genetics, and Biology. The format of the conference consists of oral and poster presentations, keynote lectures, and interactive sessions between the various disciplines.

The Dutch Colorectal Cancer Group (DCCG) has taken the initiative for the EMCCC since 2001. The conference in 2012 builds upon five previous successful multidisciplinary conferences on colorectal cancer which were held in The Netherlands in 2001 & 2004, in Germany in 2006 & 2008 and France in 2010. This last congress was visited by more than 600 participants from more than 30 countries.

CME Accreditation

Program will be submitted for CME accreditation.

Abstract submission

Participants interested in presenting data will be invited to submit their abstracts. Abstracts are subject to acceptance by the scientific committee. Once accepted, abstracts will be published in the final program book and scheduled for a poster presentation. Additionally, the presenting author of a selected proffered paper is invited to present the abstract at the meeting.

Abstract submission deadline:

1 December 2011
